REPORT

OF THE

COMMISSIONER OF PATENTS

FOR THE YEAR 1859.

ARTS AND MANUFACTURES.

IN TWO VOLUMES.

VOLUME II.

WASHINGTON:
GEORGE W. BOWMAN, PRINTER.
1860.

In the Senate of the United States, February 9, 1860.

Resolved, That the Annual Report of the Commissioner of Patents on "Arts and Manufactures" for the year 1859, be printed, and that two thousand additional copies thereof be printed for the Interior Department for purposes of official distribution, and that the Secretary of the Interior be directed to furnish each patentee for the year 1859 with one copy of the report; and that a sufficient number of copies be printed for that purpose in addition to those already ordered by this resolution, the plates and drawings to be enlarged, but not to exceed in size those illustrating the report for 1857: Provided, That the expense shall not be increased by such enlargement, and provided, that the tabular statements and indices be printed with nonpareil type, and the descriptions of patents with brevier type, so as to complete the entire report in two octavo volumes.

Attest:

ASBURY DICKINS, Secretary

In the Senate of the United States, May 19, 1860

Resolved, That the number of copies of the Annual Report of the Commissioner of Patents on Arts and Manufactures for the year 1859, in addition to the usual number, ordered to be printed by the resolution of the Senate of the 9th of February last, be delivered at the folding room of the Senate, for the use of the Senate.

Attest:

ASBURY DICKINS, Secretary.

In the Senate of the United States, June 12, 1860.

Whereas, the copies of the Annual Report of the Commissioner of Patents on Arts and Manufactures originally intended for the Patent Office have been diverted to the use of the Senate, and the number ordered was indefinite,

Resolved, That ten thousand copies of said report be printed for the use of the Senate, and that the number of copies heretofore ordered be printed for the use of the Patent Office, one copy to be sent to each patentee

Attest:

ASBURY DICKINS, Secretary.
